Notice of Compliance with Rule 235

All Defendants hereby advise this Court that, on this date, they have notified the Attorney General through overnight, registered mail of their constitutional challenge to Act 192 of 2014 as required by Rule of Civil Procedure 235. Pursuant to that rule, "The Attorney General may intervene as a party or may be heard without the necessity of intervention."

This Court has discretion to stay the case while the Attorney General considers response or proceed without waiting for a response:

The court in its discretion may stay the proceedings pending the giving of the notice and a reasonable opportunity to the Attorney General to respond thereto. If the circumstances of the case require, the court may proceed without prior notice in which event notice shall be given as soon as possible; or the court may proceed without waiting action by the Attorney General in response to a notice.

Respectfully submitted,

Lavery Faherty
